

"The deepest level of communication is not communication, but communion. It is wordless. It is beyond words, and it is beyond speech, and it is beyond concept. Not that we discover a new unity. We discover an older unity. My dear Brothers and Sisters, we are already one. But we imagine that we are not. And what we have to recover is our original unity. What we have to be is what we are."

-Thomas Merton

The Episcopal Diocese of New York

Last Anti-Racism Workshop of 2017

St. Paul's on the Hill, Ossining
40 Ganung Drive, Ossining, NY

September 29-30, 2017

The purpose of Diocesan antiracism workshops is to help us become aware of how the sin of racism impacts all of our lives, and how we all unconsciously and consciously participate in racist systems. The workshop is required for clergy in our diocese and highly recommended for lay leadership.

Dialog is the foundation of the two-day workshop (9:00 - 4:00). We use group exercises and examine scientific and historical evidence concerning the origins of the concept of race and its legacy. Coffee and lunch are served and there is no cost to register and attend for members of our diocese. There is a $25.00 registration fee for members of the Episcopal Diocese of Newark and a $50.00 fee for all others.

Of the hundreds of workshop participants, more than 87% have found the workshop to be "very useful" or "extremely useful" in their work and daily lives.

Register online at dioceseny.org or call Ms. Arlene Bullard in the Bishop's office at 212.932.7363